Re: Flores for US
C00435164
Amended July Quarterly Report (4/1/07-6/30/07)

Dear Ms. Hough:

I am writing on behalf of Flores for US (the "Committee") in response to your letter of September 13, 2007 (the "Letter") to Mr. Timothy Whiting, Treasurer of the Committee. The Letter requested a response by October 15, 2007, and accordingly, this response is timely filed.

The Letter raises three questions concerning the Committee's Amended July 2007 Quarterly Report (the "Report"). I will address each in turn:

1. Identification of Contributors and Evidence of Best Efforts. The Letter states that the Report contained disclosures of contributions for which the identification was not complete. As directed in the Letter, the Committee has filed, or will have filed no later than October 15, 2007, by electronic transmission, a further amended report (the "Amended Report") including missing information to the extent the Committee has been able to acquire it. In addition, I am enclosing with this response, the following documents: A) copy of standard solicitation sent by the Committee which shows the required clear and conspicuous request for contributor information and the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information, including the "best efforts" language required by applicable regulations; and B) the affidavit of Kaleshia Page, Finance Director of the
